

PLANETARIUM NIGHTS AT LBCC

STARGAZE INDOORS

View the night sky, travel through the Solar System and deep into the universe. Learn about the constellations, planets and other astronomical objects. Our planetarium consists of a thirty-five foot diameter hemispherical dome equipped with a brand new state of the art Evans & Sutherland Digistar 5 system.

SPRING 2017 SCHEDULE

(All shows are preceded with a presentation)

- ▶ Feb. 24 Amy Fredericks
"The Great American Eclipse of 2017"

- ▶ March. 24 Ryan Carroll
"Dark Matter and Why it Matters"

- ▶ April. 21 Douglas McElroy
"Cruisin' Around the (Stellar) Neighborhood"

D Building Room 326 LAC campus
7:00pm - 8:00pm
Doors open at 6:45pm

Admission is free and open to the public. Metered parking and day permits are available near building D. For more information and maps visit us online at,

<http://www.lbcc.edu/Planetarium/visit.cfm>

Don't miss SCIENCE NIGHT

Friday May 19th 4-8pm

We will have multiple viewings and various science exhibits. More information TBA.